DOCUMENT: CCA-U63_70254_007RH_008LH

SOURCE: Canterbury Cathedral Archives

LANGUAGE: English

DATE; 13/12/1718

SUMMARY:
13th December 1718 letter to Samuel Norris, Chapter Clerk at Canterbury from Thomas Rouse enclosing the state of the manor & explaining that the rent is normally paid punctually but this time Mr Hall made a mistake.

TRANSCRIPTION

Outside:
Letter fom Th[oma]s Rouse 1718
To Mr Samuel Norris Chapter Clerke att Canterbury
cost 9d

Inside:

Dr Comens 13

[Decem]ber 1718

Mr. Norris

Inclosed is Mr Halls State of the Mannor of Doccomb, my friend (who is a man to be depended upon) assures me,
That the rent shall be punctually paid or the time to come; and, that there had not bin (sic) such an arrear now, had not Mr Hall bin (sic) under some mistake about it.

As soon as you have laid this before the Dean and Chapter, let me have their resolution, that I may acquaint my friend Mr Webber of it.

My humble service to the Dean if now with you: I am

yo[u] r humble ser[van]t

Tho[mas] Rous